CHATTANOOGA STATE TECHNICAL COMMUNITY COLLEGE
COLLEGE READING AND WRITING CENTER
USAGE REPORT

Greetings from the College Reading and Writing Center,

This has been a very busy and dynamic year at Chattanooga State in general, and no less so for the College Reading and Writing Center. In February of this year, our Manager, Kelley Hayton, stepped down to raise her growing family, and Jesse Baruffi was brought in to serve as the Temporary/Interim Manager in her stead. We have also seen several new and talented student workers and professional tutors come through to help the growing number of students requiring assistance in various fields of study outside English and Reading, including RI 100, Speech, Psychology, History, and even Biology. We consider this a good thing, as we hope to offer assistance to as many students as possible, and help to improve the overall quality of writing at the college.

This Usage Report includes statistics from both the Fall 2007 and Spring 2008 semesters. Despite their status as “short” months, we decided to include December and May, as students still frequent the Center during these times. It is our hope that including this information will provide a more accurate view of our usage throughout the school year.

As we begin the new academic year, it remains our goal to continue to serve faculty, staff and students at Chattanooga State by fulfilling our mission to provide:

Instructional support in reading, writing, and oral communication across the curriculum to all Chattanooga State students in their educational endeavors while assisting faculty by offering tutorial assistance and supplemental materials to support their classroom instruction.

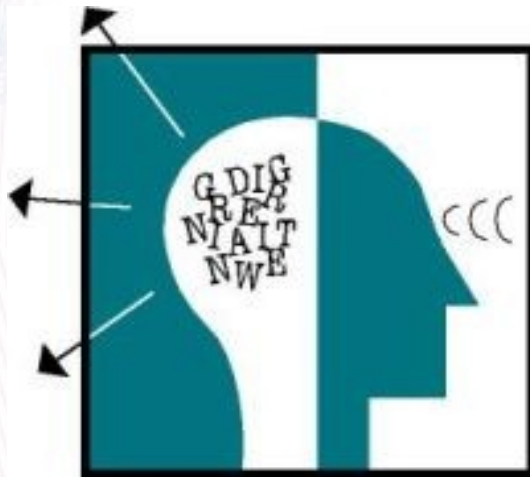

It is our hope that by striving to fulfill this mission we may help students along their path of achieving success.

Best regards to you all,

College Reading and Writing Center

Sarah McDowell, Coordinator

Jesse Baruffi, Manager
